AGENDA ITEM 3

NOTICE OF MOTION:

"This Council celebrated its 50th anniversary last year and yet it only began offering payments to members simply for attending meetings following a vote in 2023.

"It is important to stress that the Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales did not mandate or recommend Town / Community Councils introduce these payments, only that Councils could introduce a payment of up to £30 at their own discretion.

'Town Councillors' attendance allowance expenses are unnecessary, counterproductive and come at an unjustifiable cost.

"The role of a Llanelli Town Councillor has always been recognised as a voluntary one for decades. This motion simply proposes that we return to this by removing the £30 per meeting payment for attendance whether in person or online. This would save the taxpayer about £12,000 each year."

Proposed by

Councillor Terry Davies, Tyisha Ward

Seconded by

Councillor Michael Cranham, Bigyn Ward
